PHRM4102 OSCE Marking Rubric (20% weight)

Station 1 – Managing of a Pharmacy Presentation (10 mins)

Session: _____ | Examiner: _____ | Student Name/#: _____

	Absent, Minimal	Benchmark	Good	Advanced	Exceptional
Info Gathering (PEx: 25 points)	Does not address the client's request in a manner that is acceptable.	Addresses the client's request in an acceptable manner.	Addresses the client's request in a structured and mostly professional manner.	Addresses the client's request in a well-structured and professional manner.	Addresses the client's request in a well-structured, effective, and efficient manner.
	Does not obtain all relevant information or misses critical information.	Obtains all relevant and critical information to provide safe and effective care.	Obtains all relevant and critical information and adapts questioning based on presenting problems.	Obtains all relevant and critical information, adapts questioning based on patient cues and information provided.	Obtains all relevant and critical information, identifies and pursues lines of questioning that inform the broader clinical diagnosis.
	0	12.5 points	15 points	20 points	25 points
Clinical Management (PEx: 50 points)	Information for the optimal use of medicines is not provided or not provided to a satisfactory level.	Information for the optimal use of medicines is provided but may not be very structured or clear.	Information for the optimal use of medicines is clearly provided with an appropriate level of detail.	Information for the optimal use of medicines is clearly provided with a high level of detail.	Information for the optimal use of medicines is clearly and concisely provided with a comprehensive level of detail.
	Response does not include appropriate holistic management strategies and referral points.	Response includes generic holistic management strategies and referral points.	Response includes relevant holistic management strategies and referral pathways.	Response includes a range of relevant holistic management strategies, appropriate monitoring and referral pathways.	Response tailors specific, holistic management strategies and supports client access. Assesses ability to self-monitor and refers for targeted support. Empowers client decision-making.
	Interaction demonstrates limited understanding of pharmacist scope of practice.	Interaction demonstrates a basic understanding of pharmacist scope of practice and requirements.	Interaction demonstrates a good understanding of pharmacist scope of practice and requirements.	Interaction actively utilises the pharmacist's scope of practice and manages requirements.	Interaction actively utilises the pharmacist's full scope of practice, supports clients to access care outside of the scope, and clearly manages all requirements.
	Beneficial patient outcome NOT achieved = 0 points	Beneficial patient outcome MUST be achieved = 25 points	Beneficial patient outcome MUST be achieved = 30 points	Beneficial patient outcome MUST be achieved = 40 points	Beneficial patient outcome MUST be achieved = 50 points
Notes	Critical Information: □ Confirm Patient; □ Medications; □ Medical Conditions; □ Allergies/SEs. If Relevant: □ Pregnancy/Breastfeeding; □ Child Age & Weight.

PHRM4102 OSCE Marking Rubric (20% weight)

	Absent, Minimal	Benchmark	Good	Advanced	Exceptional
Communication (C&C: 25 points)	Issues with voice volume, tone, or clarity interfering with understanding throughout.	The voice volume, tone and clarity adequate.	Voice volume and clarity good. Voice tone modulated to some degree.	Voice volume and clarity are effective. Voice tone modulated contextually.	Voice volume, clarity excellent. Voice tone natural, very well modulated to match the empathetic level of the message.
	Flow of communication difficult to follow.	The flow of communication is acceptable.	The flow of communication is mostly easy-to-follow.	The flow of communication is easy-to-follow throughout.	The flow of communication is very natural, easy-to-follow.
	Limited or no use of appropriate gestures, facial expression, or eye contact.	Uses gestures, facial expression, or eye contact, but only to a minimal acceptable level.	Good use of gestures, facial expression, and eye contact generally supporting verbal communication.	Effective use of gestures, facial expression, and eye contact to support good verbal communication.	Actively, effectively utilises gestures, facial expression, and eye contact to effectively enhance communication.
	0 points	12.5 points	15 points	20 points	25 points
Patient-Centred Care (PEx: 50 points)	Communication does not meet the patient's needs.	Communication style mostly suits the patient's emotional needs and understanding.	Communication style suits the patient's emotional needs and assesses understanding.	Adjusts communication style to respect the patient's emotional needs, communication, and understanding.	Effectively tailors communication style to attend to the patient's emotional needs, communication, and understanding.
	Does not provide relevant information, or information provided is not appropriate for the patient.	Provides relevant information in response to patient's question.	Proactively offers relevant information and confirms understanding.	Supports patient's access to information, adapts information to their needs, confirms understanding and clarifies as required.	Advocates for patient's access to information and addresses barriers to access. Adapts information to their needs, confirms understanding and clarifies as required.
	States or proceeds with a decision without discussing options or seeking the patient's preferences or circumstances.	Discusses options and seeks patient preferences and circumstances before proceeding with a decision.	Discusses options and their benefits and harms, considers patient preferences and circumstances, before proceeding with a decision.	Discusses options and their benefits and harms, weighing them against the patient's preferences and circumstances. Invites the patient to choose from options provided.	Discusses options and their benefits and harms, weighing them against the patient's preferences and circumstances. Collaborates in shared decision making with the patient.
	0 points	25 points	30 points	40 points	50 points

NB: Each criterion includes multiple bands. Students do not need to achieve the performance level for each band. Rather, students are marked according to the cell that provides the best overall description of their performance.

PHRM4102 OSCE Marking Rubric (20% weight)

Station 2 – Challenging Communication (5 mins)

Session: _____ | Examiner: _____ | Student Name/#: _____

	Absent, Minimal	Benchmark	Good	Advanced	Exceptional
Communication (C&C: 25 points)	Fails to identify or respond to the other person's goals. Communication is unclear, inappropriate in tone, or lacks structure. Poor listening or engagement.	Basic understanding of the other person's goals. Communication is generally clear but may be overly scripted or lack responsiveness. Limited empathy or adaptability.	Understands the other person's perspective with some prompting. Communicates clearly and respectfully. May miss subtle cues but maintains rapport.	Effectively identifies and responds to the other person's goals and concerns. Uses appropriate tone and language. Demonstrates empathy and adjusts communication style to the situation.	Demonstrates outstanding active listening; elicits and integrates the other person's goals and perspective with empathy and clarity. Adapts language and tone seamlessly. Communicates complex ideas clearly and respectfully.
	0 points	12.5 points	15 points	20 points	25 points
Professionalism (PIP: 25 points)	Unprofessional behaviour evident. Disrespectful, dismissive, or inappropriate responses. Fails to uphold ethical or professional standards.	Demonstrates basic professional behaviour. May appear uncertain or overly passive. Limited ability to manage difficult interactions.	Generally professional and respectful. May show minor lapses in confidence or tone but recovers appropriately. Demonstrates awareness of professional boundaries.	Maintains professional demeanour and ethical standards. Handles challenges with confidence and respect. Demonstrates accountability and self-awareness.	Exemplifies professional conduct under pressure. Maintains composure, autonomy, respect, and ethical integrity throughout. Demonstrates leadership in managing the interaction.
	0 points	12.5 points	15 points	20 points	25 points
Notes					